

WM101DMV2

EIKON

EIKON's WM101 V2 series is a complete range of single or dual channel wireless products with handheld transmitters or bodypack transmitters with headset microphone. This line of products offers a particularly interesting value for money, thanks to the quality capsule of the transmitters and the Digital Encrypting system with 3 available channels. Single-channel systems include a rugged ABS housing while dual-channel systems include a solid metal chassis.
